Is the solar photovoltaic market growing in the Czech Republic?

However, Renewable Market Watch(TM) registered that after a 6-year stagnation in the solar photovoltaic market in the Czech Republic since 2018, the activity in the small scale residential and commercial segment increased. The report provides a complete picture of the market situation, dynamics, current issues and future prospects.

What is the energy sector like in the Czech Republic?

The Czech Republic's energy sector is characterized by a diverse mix of sources. The primary source of electricity in the country is coal, which has historically played a central role in its energy production. Coal-fired power plants continue to be a significant part of the energy landscape, despite global trends moving towards renewable sources.

Why is the Czech solar market undeveloped?

By 2007, the Czech solar photovoltaic market was undeveloped with only 4 MW of cumulative installed capacity. The favourable renewable energy law with a very attractive feed-in tariff led to an uncontrolled boom in solar PV installations without adequate government reaction between 2009 and 2011, when almost 2 GW of capacity was installed.

What are the key components of the Czech Republic's electricity mix?

Nuclear energy is another key component of the Czech Republic's electricity mix. Nuclear power plants, notably the Temelín and Dukovany facilities, provide a substantial portion of the country's electricity, highlighting its importance in the national energy strategy.
