Who is flextecs?

FlexTecs is the leading margin assurance solutions provider that equips businesses to reduce profit leakage with recovery audit, contract compliance, and SaaS-based error prevention technologies.

Why did you choose flextecs?

"I found the FlexTecs approach to be refreshing and built around understanding the problem and partnering TVG to create a solution e.g. accelerating the review to closer to the transaction date and how we could audit more suppliers by using their global model."

What makes flextecs different from traditional recovery audit firms?

Different from traditional recovery audit firms, we actively work to shift from reactive to proactive, getting as close to prepayment as possible. At the end of the day, FlexTecs is here to help clients help themselves. Evaluate if you are receiving the most value from your current recovery audit process.
